Religion Classroom Policies

- Students and Teacher will be respectful at all times.
- During classroom discussions, which are an important part of religion class, students will participate, allowing others to talk while they listen.
- Students will receive a class participation grade of 100 at the beginning of the year. Points will be deducted from that grade if a student fails to participate or prevents others from participating.
- Students are expected to participate at Mass.
- If a student is absent from class, the student is required to make-up the work missed. If a student misses a test, the student must be prepared to take the test when he/she returns to school.
- Extra help is offered. A student can make arrangements to receive extra help by informing the teacher that he/she needs it.

Assignments

- Assignments are given four to five nights a week.
- The heading for written assignments will be as follows:

  Religion, Grade___ Name
  Date Mrs. Sanders

- Students are expected to complete all assignments on time and neatly. Students begin the year with a homework grade of 100. Points will be deducted from that grade if assignments or projects are not handed in on time.
- Tests are given at the end of each chapter. The tests will be returned to the student to review and the grade as well as anything that the student needs to review will be posted in the back of the student's notebook. The notebook is to be taken home on Friday and signed by one parent, the test remains in the student's folder in the classroom.
- Each semester, the lowest test grade is dropped.

As always, I am excited to begin a new school year. I am confident that this year will be a wonderful one for all of us!
